Sir:

Favorable reconsideration is respectfully requested in view of the amendments below that have been made after discussion thereof in a telephone interview with Supervisory Primary Examiner Carl Friedman on January 31, 2007. According to Mr. Friedman, the amendments place at least a majority of the claims in the application in condition for allowance. For reasons below all claims are believed allowable.

The remarks below provide a record of the telephone interview of January 31, 2007.
